Mounds View High School community:

Yesterday I shared the news that Ted Bennett, a Mounds View High School teacher, was arrested and was in custody pending formal charges. Today we've learned that he's been charged with felony criminal sexual conduct, and he has resigned from his position in our district.

Our school is cooperating with the Ramsey County Sheriff's Department during their ongoing investigation. Because this is an active investigation by Ramsey County, we remain limited in the information we have and the details that we can share.

We are deeply disturbed by this news, and our foremost concern is for all who may be affected by this distressing situation. We stand with all survivors of sexual assault and abuse, and our school unequivocally condemns any actions that harms or exploits students. Any student who may need additional support or have questions during this time is encouraged to reach out to their dean.

Please be assured that we will continue to take every step necessary to ensure a safe learning environment for all students, and we will act immediately to protect students any time we learn of situations that may jeopardize their safety.

If you have any information to share related to this investigation, please contact the Ramsey County Sheriff's Department at 651-266-7331.

Thank you,

Rob Reetz
Principal
