Mounds View High School community:

Today we've learned that Ted Bennett, a Mounds View High School teacher, has been arrested and is in custody pending formal charges. He was placed on administrative leave on Monday, November 10, and our school is cooperating with the Ramsey County Sheriff's Department during their investigation. Because this is an active investigation and at this time there are no formal charges, we are limited in what we can share and when we can share it.

We understand that this news may be upsetting to many, and our top concern remains focused on our students and supporting all who are experiencing a range of emotions. The safety and well-being of our students is of the utmost importance. Student Support Staff are available. Students can reach out to their dean for support.

Please be assured that we will continue to take every step necessary to ensure a safe learning environment for all students.

As always, I can be reached at 651-621-7103 or robert.reetz@mvschools.org.

Thank you,

Rob Reetz
Principal
